Welcome to Chilbolton Cameos

Over the past few years we have both had the same vision - to dramatise some of Chilbolton's history. The idea was developed and extended into this evening's out door presentation . Tonight, we welcome you to our drama, 'Chilbolton Cameos'.

The aim was to bring to life some of Chilbolton's rich and varied history. We have selected just seven scenarios to dramatise. They are all based on facts, but brought to life with our own interpretation of the events. We have tried to remain as faithful as possible to the recorded facts.

It has been great fun researching, writing and directing this production, making it a new and exciting venture for us and for the Chilbolton Players.

This is not a definitive history of Chilbolton. We like to think that in the future someone may wish to develop these cameos, extend them, and dramatise more of Chilbolton's history.

We hope you enjoy our production.

Our special thanks go to:

Phillipa and Nigel Munns for allowing us to use their grounds

We are indebted to Eleanor Lockyer for allowing us to use information from her books.

Steve Picco for recording the 'Narrator' and for his support

William Hunt-Poore for allowing us to use the original 'wafering irons'.

The traditional Hampshire songs, played before the production and during the interval, are taken from the CD 'Beneath our Changing Sky'. This CD was recorded in Chilbolton Church by the Andover Museum Loft Singers and Broughton Village Choir.
