

Stitch in time boosts children's hospice

THE Cockatrice Quilters of Wherwell (above) celebrate raising nearly £1,000 when they sewed a quilt as a prize in a competition in aid of the £5 million Wessex

Children's Hospice Appeal. Adrian Stent, landlord of the White Lion pub in the village, chose Mrs Scawn of Itchen as the winner.

NOP